

Public Service Announcement Competition

The PSA Competition invites teens to create concepts for speaking to other teens about dating violence.

Teens are encouraged to creatively incorporate required messages into print ads and/or Web banners encouraging visits to the Web of Friends Web site.

The competition is open to teens between the ages of 12-19 in Maricopa County. Winners will receive prizes and recognition throughout the region. Entries must be received by December 12, 2008.

Visit WebofFriends.org for competition details and entry forms.
